ORDER APPROVING SPECIAL COUNSEL FEES AND EXPENSES

The matter came before the court on June 2, 2010 on application for special counsel, Earl P. Underwood, Jr. and George R. Irvine seeking reimbursement for expenses and payment of counsel fees for the representation of the Debtors in AP NO.: 08-01087. Mr. Underwood's and Mr. Irvine's employment as special counsel was first approved on April 3 2009. The motion was support by affidavits and exhibits itemizing the movants' expenses and setting out the details of the contract with the Debtors. After notice to parties in interest, the matter came up before the Court on June 22nd 2010. Appearances were as noted in the record. Based upon the proffer of the Debtors and the affidavit and exhibits filed by movant in support of the motion, the Court is of the opinion that the motion is due to be and is hereby granted. The Court orders as follows:

1. The application for attorney's fees and expenses is approved and attorney's fees and expenses are authorized in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00).

Dated: July 15, 2010
